Dear Ms Kulaszka:

Re: Lemire v. Warman (Federal Court File: T-860-07)

Further to our discussions, I have been instructed by the Canadian Human Rights Commission to provide you with answers by Dean Steacy and Hannya Rizk, to the questions which are in issue in the Federal Court proceedings:

Questions asked of Dean Steacy with his answers:

1. Do any investigators post on Stormfront.org?

I am not aware of any investigator other than me, who has posted on Stormfront.

2. Getting back to Jadewarr, do Commission employees sign up accounts on Stormfront, under pseudonyms such as "Jadewarr"?

I used the Jadewarr email address to create an account on Stormfront. I am not aware whether or not other investigators have created other accounts on Stormfront.

3. Do you know who Jadewarr is?

Jadewarr is not a person, it is an email address and a user account on Stormfront.org. I created the Jadewarr email address on yahoo.ca and the Jadewarr account on Stormfront. I have used the Jadewarr email address and the Jadewarr account on Stormfront on occasion, in the course of investigating complaints. I am not aware of anyone else having used the Jadewarr email address or account.

4. To your knowledge, is Jadewarr a Commission employee?

See above.

5. As part of your duties, have you ever signed up with a message board and made postings?

Yes, I have done so using the Jadewarr account in investigating section 13 complaints.

6. Do you have your own choice of how you set up an alternate e-mail account, or are you directed to set up an e-mail account with a specific server?

There were no specific directions given. As an investigator I decided how to investigate.

7. The ones that went to the Tribunal, could you name those cases? An answer to this question will follow.

8. How did you obtain this evidence from Police Officer Terry Wilson?

I learned of this officer through a newspaper article and during the course of the investigation I interviewed him and he provided me a copy of the police report.

9. What is the relationship between the police and the Commission in these types of cases?

There is no formal relationship. However, during the course of investigations I have from time to time called police departments and been provided information.

10. Is there any kind of oral agreement [with police forces on the sharing of information]? What is that?

When we can, the Commission and certain police forces share information.

11. Have you been refused information [from police forces]? What kind of information?

No, I cannot recall being refused information.

Questions asked of Hannya Rizk and her answers

12. What kind of investigations would you do, for instance, to verify the identity of a respondent?

The only investigations I have done to verify the identity of a section 13 respondent have been WHOIS searches and Visual Route searches.

13. With respect to the investigation of Mr. Lemire and the FreedomSite, what investigations did you do concerning whether he owned the FreedomSite? Did you do anything else?

I only did the WHOIS and Visual Route searches.

14. Did you undertake any other investigations to determine who owned the FreedomSite?

No.

15. You said that you entered a URL. If you look at page 4, it is from "the-cloak.com." Could you just say which URL you put in?

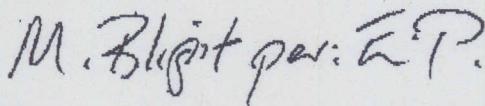

No, I don't remember ever using this.

These are being provided without prejudice to the positions it has taken in the Federal Court proceedings and in the proceedings before the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal.

Notwithstanding, it is the Commission's position that these answers render moot the application which is outstanding before the Federal Court. It is also the Commission's position that the content of this letter is subject to an "implied undertaking" that it will not be disclosed or used for any purpose unconnected with these proceedings.

I hope that your client will consider withdrawing his application at this time.

Yours truly,

S. Margot Blight
